If you're on the lookout for a traditional bodybuilding gym, or a spot to pump some iron that doesn't have that cookie-cutter feel of commercial chains - this is the spot for you, mate. The blokes and sheilas running the show here are just top-notch, always ready with a smile and some helpful advice. This gym sticks to the good old metal weights (a rarity these days), and offers a solid selection of machines to get your sweat on. What really gets me going about this place are all the trophies and posters plastered on every inch of the walls. There's a real sense of history here, and the crew working here are truly passionate about weightlifting (and the whole Bloomfield/PGH community, if you ask me). If you're after a gym with real character and purpose, look no further. Despite its old-school vibe, everything is kept shipshape and Bristol fashion. The only downside might be the dinky little loo, but let's face it, that's not why you're here, is it? I'd recommend this place to anyone in a heartbeat - I even bring my old man along when he pops by because he's chuffed with it. Cheers!
