What Members Are Saying

Feedback from gym-goers highlights the warm and inviting atmosphere at Ole Glory CrossFit. One member noted, "From Day 1, I was welcomed in as family." Many have praised coaches like Jamie and Monique for their attention to detail and support throughout workouts. However, some experiences have raised questions about class preparation, especially for children attending adult classes. While the gym welcomes kids in adult classes, it's crucial that future instructors are adequately prepared to assist younger participants. This feedback indicates an area for improvement in service delivery.

A Family Atmosphere

Members appreciate the family atmosphere cultivated by the owners, Beau and Natalie. Many reviews emphasize the community feel, with one member stating, "You will leave with an even bigger smile and a feeling of accomplishment." The kindness of staff and fellow members creates a supportive environment that encourages personal growth. As one satisfied member reflected on their experience, "The best gym. I came for work reasons to New Iberia for a few months. I really enjoyed being part of this family atmosphere."
