A gloomy, declining spot brimming with vacant shops outnumbering the bustling ones. Saturdays are teeming with rowdy teenagers dashing about, closely tailed by mall security. This destination is more suited for mature individuals seeking a cool refuge from scorching summer days. Alternatively, I suggest browsing online stores rather than venturing to the mall for leisure.

The folks who work in the stores that are still around are always so lovely and willing to lend a hand. However, it's quite evident that the owner of this mall is based in TX. If only they grasped the notion that Country Club Mall is one of the few local shopping destinations, perhaps they would reconsider their exorbitant rent prices and stop driving away the businesses. It's truly disheartening to witness the decline from what it once was, and there seems to be no justifiable explanation for it.
